From The Chapter President

The new year is off to a great start for our chapter. Most importantly, our membership is growing. We have already welcomed a few new members and several others are in the works that will hopefully be approved in the next several months. Thank you to everyone who is working hard to recruit new members and complete the paperwork – especially Chapter Registrar David Manchester.

We have developed a plan for the efforts of our chapter moving forward – with members expressing a desire to be actively involved in the community. This will include service projects, promotion of youth projects in area schools, presentation of the Color Guard in parades and special events, and through having an informational table at area fairs, festivals, etc. Combined, these activities will make our chapter more visible and invested in our community which will in turn make us stronger – and hopefully attract more members.

We are, of course, always interested in learning about our heritage and history. If you would be interested in giving a short (5 to 10 minutes) presentation at a Chapter meeting about your patriot ancestor, please let me know.

If you have any possible content for this newsletter that you think would be of interest to other members, please share it with me. This includes your own activities to promote SAR and our ideals, details about ways to honor patriots, and promotion of history and patriotism. I am always looking for pictures, too. Especially of member activities.

Please note – I have created a new email address for Chapter use: SARSouthernMaine@gmail.com. This address will be used for Chapter communications moving forward and will be used for public outreach as well. Having a chapter specific address will help us look more professional and will also make it so that accounts can be transferred to future leaders, thus creating a record for the chapter.

Remember, this is your chapter. Together, we will make this a great experience for us all.

Adam W. Bartow
President, Southern Maine Chapter

Member Project

From Chapter Member Timothy Lunney:
My Revolutionary War Patriot ancestor Elias Taylor and his eldest son John Taylor both died while serving in the Continental Army at Fort Ticonderoga in 1777 and are buried there in a mass grave. There is no grave, marker or memorial for them in Maine. I have offered to provide a Revolutionary War Soldier historical marker at the site of his home in what is now Manchester, Maine. The Manchester Maine Historical Society is verifying the exact location of his home and has offered obtain the necessary permissions from the current property owner and the Town of Manchester for placement of the marker.

Chapter Banner

The Chapter has voted to purchase a multi-purpose banner to be used for such things as parades and special events. Your input is needed to help pick a design. A few options are presented here. However, if anyone has any ideas for a better design (or if someone has expertise with graphic design and wants to create or improve on a design), we are certainly open. Please provide feedback to Chapter President Adam Bartow at SARSouthernMaine@gmail.com

Youth Programs

SAR sponsors several youth programs, appealing to all age ranges. We have decided as a Chapter to focus our attention on one youth program for now, but we need to agree on which one. Please go to sar.org and read about each of the options (available under the "Education" tab). Once you have read up, please give your feedback to Adam, or be prepared to talk about your ideas at an upcoming meeting. The goal is to start promotion with the start of the new school year in the fall of 2018.
